Make it Count: Make a Way for the King

Beyond Sunday...

Verse of the Week

*“On His robe and on His thigh, He has a name written,
King of kings and Lord of lords.”
Revelation 19:16*

This week read about the coming of the King and how you can prepare for His coming. Always read the passages in context. Write down your thoughts and your questions. Pursue answers...

Monday – Hebrews 1:2-3, 8-12; 2:8; 12:1-3; 13:28, Matthew 22:1-14

Tuesday – Matthew 24:3-31, Revelation 18:1-24

Wednesday – Matthew 24:32-51, Revelation 19:1-10

Thursday – Matthew 25:1-13; Revelation 19:11-21

Friday – Matthew 25:14-30; Revelation 21:1-27

Saturday – Matthew 25:31-46; Revelation 22:1-21

Engage

Have you accepted your invitation to the wedding banquet of the King?
How are you clothed in righteousness to attend?
Are you waiting in anticipation for the Return of the King?
What are you doing to be prepared for His coming?
How are you using the resources that you have been entrusted with?
Do you know anyone that is unprepared for Jesus coming?
What are you doing to help them understand that they need to make a decision?

Heart Challenge

Choose three people and tell them about Jesus and the true reason for celebrating Easter.

Our theme for 2026 is BEYOND

*“For, ‘Yet a little while, and the coming one will come and will not delay;
but my righteous one shall live by faith,
and if he shrinks back, my soul has no pleasure in him.’
But we are not of those who shrink back and are destroyed,
But of those who have faith and preserve their souls.”
Hebrews 10:37-39*
